INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL PREPARATIONS

Summer's days may be numbered but don't despair - the 27th Annual International Festival is just around the corner! Come experience the City of Peabody's rich ethnic heritage at this artistic and cultural celebration of diversity. This year's Festival will be held on Sunday, September 12th from 11:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in Peabody's Square. Entertainers, including Rumbafrica, Grupo Fantasia, and the Brian Maes Band, will perform from two stages. Over seventy booths will feature food from the many ethnic groups that enrich our community. Artists from around the North Shore will display their works in the International Festival Galleria.

The Festival is free and open to the public. The Festival rain date will be Sunday, September 26th.

And don't forget---the International Road Race for Progeria Research will be held Saturday, September 11th at 9:00 a.m. at Peabody City Hall, 24 Lowell Street, Peabody. The Annual Kid's Day Celebration will take place during the International Festival on Sunday, September 12th at the Leather City Commons. Bring the entire family for a day of fun, food, games and entertainment.
