

For Immediate Release

June 30, 2016

Contact: Peabody City Hall, Department of Community Development
Lucia DelNegro 978-538-5782

The City of Peabody Farmers' Market is set to begin this season on Tuesday July 12, 2016 for the fourteenth year continuing every Tuesday through mid-October. The market hours are 1 PM to 6 PM. The market is located in front of Peabody City Hall 24 Lowell Street on the corner of Lowell Street and Chestnut Street. There is parking behind city hall, the Foster Street parking lot and the Chestnut Street parking lot. There is also ample on street parking available.

Penny and Peter Srybny of Hereford Valley Farm in Andover will return for the fourteenth straight season to offer a variety of produce from their family market stand. The grower will have available fresh tomatoes, corn, cucumbers, pickling cucumbers, zucchini, summer squash, lettuce, a variety of beans, basil, pea pods, apples, peaches, watermelon, fresh honey and much more.

Other vendors are listed below:

- ~ Hereford Valley Farm (veggies, fruits, herbs & honey)
- ~ Crave Café and Bakery (cookies, cupcakes, croissants, quiche etc.)
- ~ Buddy Boy BBQ (BBQ Sauce, t-shirts, soda & water- reduced hours of 1-4:30)
- ~ Esperanza Soap Co. (handcrafted soaps and lip balms)
- ~ Kristin's Soap (organic soap, soap dishes and candles)
- ~ Artisan Ices and Creams (Italian ice, ice cream- sundaes or pints)
- ~ Mini Mun Chi's (pastelitos, empanadas, cake jars, flan & tres leche)
- ~ Honey Pot Maple Farm (opening day and making guest appearances- honey maple syrup and eggs late in the season)

North Shore 104.9 radio station will be here July 12 opening day giving away freebies and playing music!

Commonwealth Learning Center will make appearances on August 16 & 30; September 13 & 27 promoting their tutoring and assessment services as well as providing children mad libs.

Ipswich River Watershed Association will make appearances on 8/9 and 9/6 to promote watershed awareness

If you would like more information please contact Lucia DelNegro in the Community Development Department at 978-538-5782.