Salem Veterans Agent to Assist Peabody during Transition

Mayor Edward A. Bettencourt, Jr. announced that the City of Salem's Veterans Agent Kim Emerling will be available to assist Peabody veterans during the city's transition to a new veterans agent.

"My first priority is to ensure that Peabody veterans experience no interruption in services or benefits during the transition to a new veterans agent," Mayor Bettencourt said. "I want to thank Mayor Kimberley Driscoll and Veterans Agent Emerling for their assistance during this transition and for their ongoing support of our veterans and their families."

Peabody veterans can continue to call or visit the Veterans Services Department at Peabody City Hall with questions or requests for assistance. The phone number is 978-538-5928. Veterans Services staff will refer individual inquiries and requests to Salem on an as needed basis. Those veterans who wish to contact Salem Veterans Services directly can do so at (978) 745-0883.
