FREE SUMMER CONCERTS CONTINUE

Mayor Edward A. Bettencourt, Jr., is pleased to announce the next Free Summer Concert on the Leather City Common, featuring WILDFIRE. The concert will take place on Sunday, August 7, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. on the Leather City Common on Lowell Street across from the AOH Hall in downtown Peabody.

Wildfire believes in putting on what some have described as a “concert”. Wildfire is a 5-piece band that packs the power of a 10-piece. The vocals and instrumentation are powerful and true to the artist’s recording. Let’s just say that hearing is believing. Experiencing the sights and sounds of Wildfire cannot be expressed in any sound clip. Seeing the band at a live performance, is the only way to truly feel the energy and be part of the fun for which Wildfire is renowned. The band covers everything from the power houses of rock such as AC/DC and Journey to the likes of R&B greats, to the hip shaking sounds of Shakira and Lady Gaga.

Other concerts this summer are:
