FREE SUMMER CONCERTS CONTINUE

Mayor Edward A. Bettencourt, Jr., is pleased to announce the next Free Summer Concert on the Leather City Common, featuring NORTH SHORE ACAPPELLA. The concert will take place on Sunday, August 14, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. on the Leather City Common on Lowell Street across from the AOH Hall in downtown Peabody.

This week we are happy to present one of our most well-known groups, “North Shore Acappella”. Tommy Duarte, Paul Lopes, Jimmy Martin, Vinny Straccia, and Guy Chiapponi have been entertaining thousands in the Boston area for over 30 years and we are honored to have them here with us for another summer concert. This talented group is able to deliver music without any instruments and still add a blend of harmony, rhythm and tempo to songs from the last five decades. They stand out from other acappella groups by arranging each performance to feature all of their members as lead singers. This award winning group appeared on NBC's the sing-off and is well known for their continuously changing repertoire of hundreds of hits from the 40's through today.

Other concerts this summer are:
