INDUSTRIAL & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
AUGUST 23, 2018

P576-18 COUNCILLOR GOULD – Reporting for the Industrial & Community Development Committee – The Industrial & Community Development Committee met tonight and in attendance was Councillor Melville, Councillor McGinn, Councillor Rossignoll, Councillor Turco, and Councillor Gravel pinch-hit for a couple of items and I want to acknowledge him. There were a number of items and a very in-depth discussion took place. We did not discuss the sale of Crowninshield Apartments. That was pulled prior to the meeting. Next was an update regarding the repairs to the Wiggin Auditorium. As you can see, there's scaffolding in certain areas. Councillor Gravel made a great point regarding what does the $140,000 or $130,000 get us beyond just repairs hoping there was more attention paid to the beautiful artwork inside. Mr. Bellavance said he would get back to us at our next meeting with an update on that. The update and review of the zoning maps and corresponding use tables was continued. Next was a proposed zoning amendment for filming and production companies. Mr. Bellavance updated us as to where that stood. There was some language that has to be worked on. Next was the proposed zoning amendment for defining artist studios and galleries and the districts that they're allowed. Mr. Bellavance will update us with changes in language. We also had almost an hour of discussion about the residential overlay proposal. Every councillor participated. There was some great discussion. As it turned out we had a motion by Councillor Turco for approval of the overlay as presented to us and that failed four to one. We then had a discussion about the kiosks for bike rentals at the south Peabody Greenway, Crystal Lake, and downtown. It looks like they're narrowing down a vendor called Zagster, which will be providing us with some bicycle kiosks. It was a great subcommittee meeting and I'm proud of my fellow Councillors for their in-depth discussion on all the issues. (Report received)
