Mayor Bettencourt Looks to Return Over $320,000 in Unclaimed Cash

Mayor Edward A Bettencourt, Jr. released a list of hundreds of individuals and businesses who may be entitled to abandoned property held in the City's Treasury.

"The City remains committed to reconnecting individuals with their property through an easy and accessible claims process," Mayor Bettencourt said. "The City of Peabody is reminding residents and business owners to review its online Unclaimed Property List for potential outstanding funds. The city has streamlined the claims process to make it easier for individuals to recover unclaimed property."

By visiting the city's website, www.peabody-ma.gov, those appearing on Unclaimed Property list can obtain information concerning the value of the property being held as well as a claim form. Each claim form must include a valid signature and valid mailing address in order to be processed. Claim forms must be received by July 31st, 2026. Claimants should allow eight weeks for checks to be administered.
